Love Spans Three Generations

Mrs. Aileen Harvey (Ed), (almost hidden in photo, above) who retires this year as a teacher at Pamplin Elementary School, says that her love for children stretches a long way – to three generations, in fact. She taught Mrs. Frank Cumby (far right) during Mrs. Harvey's first year of teaching. Later, she taught Mrs. Cumby's daughter, Mrs. Mark Hipps (center) now a teacher's aide in the Pamplin 2nd grade. Now, with her retirement year, coming to a close, she has been teaching Randy Hipps, Mrs. Hipps' son and Mrs. Cumby's grandson. Mrs. Harvey was honored at a tea Friday afternoon at the Pamplin school.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Walter H. Carson. Soloist was Mrs. Anne Hammer of Scottsville.

The bride's dress was fashioned of white starched chiffon and Chantilly lace. The empire bodice of lace was finished with a high Victorian neckline and long Bishop sleeves. Her full, floor-length mantilla of imported silk illusion was edged with a wide band of lace.

The bridesmaids wore full, floor-length crepe gowns. The bodice was baby blue, with Bishop sleeves and a skirt of green and blue floral design.

The men wore full dress tuxedos.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bride handed a rosebud to her mother and to the mother of the groom.

Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Goodrich entertained with a reception in the Church social hall.

The bride was graduated from Appomattox High School and attended Ferrum Jr. College. She is employed by the State Police Dept. in Appomattox. The bridegroom is a graduate of E. C. Glass High School and is a member of the Lynchburg Police Department.

After a southern wedding trip, the couple will live in Lynchburg.

Rehearsal Party

A rehearsal party was held Friday evening at Memorial United Methodist Church in honor of Miss Judy Goodrich and Mr. Douglas Pollard whose marriage was an event of Saturday evening at Memorial Methodist Church.

Hostesses were Mr. Pollard's mother, Mrs. William F. Pollard, mother of the groom, Mrs. G. D. Ferguson, both of Lynchburg and Mrs. Theo Lewis of Appomattox. An arrangement of pink peonies and candles carried out a bridal motif on the refreshment table in the social hall of the church. Punch, cookies and mints were served to members of the bridal party, relatives and close friends of the honored couple.
